
OFFICERS AND BOARD OF DIRECTORS

David W. Caughlan, President.....East St. Louis, Ill.
Real Estate and Insurance
Justin T. Flint, First Vice-President.....St. Louis, Mo.
Justin T. Flint Laundry Co.
Wm. E. Caulfield, Secretary.....St. Louis, Mo.
Realtor
Robert E. Murray, Treasurer.....East St. Louis, Ill.
Aluminum Cooking Utensil Co.
F. K. Dillman.....East St. Louis, Ill.
Druggist
William Hilmer.....St. Louis, Mo.
Lorenzo Anderson & Co.
E. J. Jacoby.....Alton, Ill.
House Furnishings
Mrs. Flora J. Mechlin.....St. Louis, Mo.
Mechlin & Voyce Title Co.
Wm. K. Norris.....St. Louis, Mo.
McQuay-Norris Co.
Herman Schnure.....St. Louis, Mo.
Schnure-Buick Co.
A. H. Witte.....St. Louis, Mo.
Retired

Mrs. Frank Craig,.....President, L. C. I. A.
L. W. McMorrow.....President, Men's Club
Mrs. Minnie Scotten Johnson.....Decorations
Nancy Lee Newland.....President, Bird Club

Thomas Brown.....Custodian of the Grounds

New Piasa Chautauqua

CHAUTAUQUA, ILL.

A Summer Resort on the Mississippi River Within Forty Miles of St. Louis

REV. M. EDWIN JOHNSON
Dean of Religious Work and Program Manager

Program for Season Beginning June 28, 1930, and Ending August 31, 1930

NEW PIASA CHAUTAUQUA

The forty-seventh season of the New Piasa Chautauqua will cover a period of ten weeks, during which time entertainment is furnished, which is both healthful and uplifting.

Not the smallest part of a summer at this resort is the delightful community spirit that prevails at all times, a cottage colony with all the comforts of the city and delightful cool nights.

While most of the cottages (some 122) are occupied by owners, there are several that may be rented and accommodations at the Springs Hotel may be had at all times.

We are presenting you the program for the forty-seventh season of the New Piasa Chautauqua and cordially invite you to spend your summer with us. We feel that we have much to offer you in the way of a summer rich in possibilities. Chautauqua is a unique resort and no place can you find the environment it offers. We still hold to the traditions and yet are sufficiently up to date to provide entertainment and recreation for all.

Chautauqua is chartered under the laws of Illinois as an educational, religious and recreational association. It is owned by a group of stockholders who elect from their number twelve directors who have entire supervision and management of the grounds. Every dollar of income received is put into repairs and improvements and the necessary expenses of Chautauqua. The only sources of income for the upkeep of the grounds is through admissions, commissions and assessments.

We are non-denominational, with no religious or class distinction, and at all times endeavor in a practical way, to awaken and deepen the spiritual life in its happiest phases, creating a friendly, Christian atmosphere.

The Program Committee have endeavored to build this the forty-seventh program, to suit the taste of all, and in keeping with the desires of our guests, the lighter form of entertainment for those who are seeking rest and relaxation and yet a few diversions along more serious lines. In other words, we try to live at Chau-

P R O G R A M

Opening Night, June 28th

7:30 P. M.—Address of welcome and announcements by Mr. Johnson.
Orchestra—Charles Baxter, piano; Kenneth Harlow, trumpet and melophone; Edward Hayes, saxaphone and clarinet; Pearl Baxter, drums and voice; Joe Crivello, banjo and guitar.
8:00 P. M.—Motion pictures.
9:00 P. M.—Dancing at the Pavilion.

Week of June 29th to July 5th

Sunday School, 9:30 A. M.
Sermon by Rev. Ressho Robinson at 11:00 A. M.
Monday, Wednesday, Friday and Saturday, motion pictures at 7:30 P. M.
Saturday, Baxter's Orchestra at the Pavilion, 9:00 to 12:00 P. M.

Week of July 6th to July 12th

Sunday School, 9:30 A. M.
Sermon by Rev. P. R. Glotfelty at 11:00 A. M.
Monday, 11:00 A. M., Food Demonstration by Mrs. Sophia B. Shaw, General Foods Co. of New York, and continuing through the week.
Monday, Wednesday, Friday and Saturday, motion pictures at 7:30 P. M.
Saturday, Baxter's Orchestra at the Pavilion, 9:00 to 12:00 P. M.

Week of July 13th to July 19th

Sunday School, 9:30 A. M.
Sermon by Rev. Edgar J. Vance at 11:00 A. M.
Monday, 11:00 A. M., Nature study class under direction of Mrs. Minnie Scotten Johnson, and continuing throughout the week.
Monday, Wednesday, Friday and Saturday, motion pictures at 7:30 P. M.
Saturday, Baxter's Orchestra at the Pavilion, 9:00 to 12:00 P. M.

Week of July 20th to July 26th

Sunday School, 9:30 A. M.
Sermon by H. B. Phillips at 11:00 A. M.
Monday, 10:00 A. M.—Nature Study.
Monday, 11:00 A. M.—Bible Conference.
Monday, Wednesday, Friday and Saturday, motion pictures at 7:30 P. M.
Saturday, Baxter's Orchestra at the Pavilion, 9:00 to 12:00 P. M.

Sunday Evenings, throughout the Season, Vespers as the Chapel.

Week of July 27th to August 2nd

Sunday School, 9:30 A. M.
Sermon by Rev. Cameron Harmon at 11:00 A. M.
Bible Conference each day of this week at 11:00 A. M., beginning Monday.
Monday, Wednesday, Friday and Saturday, motion pictures at 7:30 P. M.
Saturday, Baxter's Orchestra at the Pavilion, 9:00 to 12:00 P. M.

Week of August 3rd to August 9th

W. C. T. U. Sunday.
Sunday School, 9:30 A. M.
Sermon by Rev. Adah May Hagler at 11:00 A. M.
Monday, 11:00 A. M.—Bible Lecture by Prof. Edward Marshall.
Monday, Wednesday, Friday and Saturday, motion pictures at 7:30 P. M.
Saturday, Baxter's Orchestra at the Pavilion, 9:00 to 12:00 P. M.

Week of August 10th to August 16th

Sunday School, 9:30 A. M.
Sermon by Rev. M. A. Souers at 11:00 A. M.
Monday, Wednesday, Friday and Saturday, motion pictures at 7:30 P. M.
Saturday, Children's Day.
Saturday, Baxter's Orchestra at the Pavilion, 9:00 to 12:00 P. M.

Week of August 17th to August 23rd

Sunday School, 9:30 A. M.
Sermon by Rev. Charles Bauslin at 11:00 A. M.
Monday, Wednesday, Friday and Saturday, motion pictures at 7:30 P. M.
Saturday, Baxter's Orchestra at the Pavilion, 9:00 to 12:00 P. M.

Week of August 24th to August 30th

Sunday School, 9:30 A. M.
Sermon by Rev. E. B. Atcheson at 11:00 A. M.
Monday, Tuesday, Wednesday and Friday, motion pictures at 7:30 P. M.
Saturday, 7:30 P. M.—Annual Chautauqua Minstrels, directed by Miss Betty Broeder. Our gala night.
Saturday, Baxter's Orchestra at the Pavilion, 9:00 to 12:00 P. M.

Sunday, August 31st

Sunday School, 9:30 A. M.
Sermon by Rev. A. R. Pixley at 11:00 A. M.

NEW PIASA CHAUTAUQUA

The forty-seventh season of the New Piasa Chautauqua will cover a period of ten weeks, during which time entertainment is furnished, which is both healthful and uplifting.

Not the smallest part of a summer at this resort is the delightful community spirit that prevails at all times, a cottage colony with all the comforts of the city and delightful cool nights.

While most of the cottages (some 122) are occupied by owners, there are several that may be rented and accommodations at the Springs Hotel may be had at all times.

We are presenting you the program for the forty-seventh season of the New Piasa Chautauqua and cordially invite you to spend your summer with us. We feel that we have much to offer you in the way of a summer rich in possibilities. Chautauqua is a unique resort and no place can you find the environment it offers. We still hold to the traditions and yet are sufficiently up to date to provide entertainment and recreation for all.

Chautauqua is chartered under the laws of Illinois as an educational, religious and recreational association. It is owned by a group of stockholders who elect from their number twelve directors who have entire supervision and management of the grounds. Every dollar of income received is put into repairs and improvements and the necessary expenses of Chautauqua. The only sources of income for the upkeep of the grounds is through admissions, commissions and assessments.

We are non-denominational, with no religious or class distinction, and at all times endeavor in a practical way, to awaken and deepen the spiritual life in its happiest phases, creating a friendly, Christian atmosphere.

The Program Committee have endeavored to build this the forty-seventh program, to suit the taste of all, and in keeping with the desires of our guests, the lighter form of entertainment for those who are seeking rest and relaxation and yet a few diversions along more serious lines. In other words, we try to live at Chautauqua, the life of healthy, normal folks, embracing religion, recreation and work.

W. E. CAULFIELD,
JUSTIN T. FLINT,
ROBERT E. MURRAY,
FLORA J. MECHIN, Chairman.

Mr. M. Edwin Johnson as Dean of Religious Work and Program Manager will be at Chautauqua May 15 and will be in charge of the cottages. It will be to the interest of the cottage owners to register them with Mr. Johnson for rental. Any one interested in renting a cottage can communicate with him after May 15.

It is a privilege to again have Mr. Johnson with us. His years of service to Chautauqua and his experience in all Chautauqua work is an inspiration to us to stick to the traditions that have made Chautauqua what it is today, a unique, broad-minded, Christian community—a safe place for your family and children.

Mrs. Minnie Scotten Johnson has developed a fine program for the two weeks of nature study. The Bird Club, under her direction, is sponsor for this work. Mrs. Johnson has many new ideas for beautifying our platform and Children's Day, under her supervision is always the red letter day.

Orville Isaacs, our genial accompanist of last season, will again be with us. This young man endeared himself to both old and young last season and we are glad to welcome him back.

Our motion pictures will be in charge of Mr. C. R. Johnson of Grafton. He promises us the best of the silent pictures. We wonder what chance the talkies would have with our noisy audience on Mondays, which are set aside for Children's Nights.

Our young folks will be entertained each Saturday evening with a dance at the river front. Charles Baxter's Orchestra will furnish the music for the season. These five people play between them eight different instruments and you may be sure of the best. This group also furnishes music for all occasions.

We expect to have one or two food demonstrations interspersed in the program; also athletic events.

Two Bible Conferences will be held by Rev. Cameron Harmon of McKendree College, and Mr. Edward Marshall, lecturer of the Redpath Chautauqua Bureau. Mr. Marshall has been twice around the world, lived in Palestine and lectured in over one thousand cities in America.

tauqua, the life of healthy, normal folks, embracing religion, recreation and work.

W. E. CAULFIELD,

JUSTIN T. FLINT,

ROBERT E. MURRAY,

FLORA J. MECHIN, Chairman.

Mr. M. Edwin Johnson as Dean of Religious Work and Program Manager will be at Chautauqua May 15 and will be in charge of the cottages. It will be to the interest of the cottage owners to register them with Mr. Johnson for rental. Any one interested in renting a cottage can communicate with him after May 15.

It is a privilege to again have Mr. Johnson with us. His years of service to Chautauqua and his experience in all Chautauqua work is an inspiration to us to stick to the traditions that have made Chautauqua what it is today, a unique, broad-minded, Christian community—a safe place for your family and children.

Mrs. Minnie Scotten Johnson has developed a fine program for the two weeks of nature study. The Bird Club, under her direction, is sponsor for this work. Mrs. Johnson has many new ideas for beautifying our platform and Children's Day, under her supervision is always the red letter day.

Orville Isaacs, our genial accompanist of last season, will again be with us. This young man endeared himself to both old and young last season and we are glad to welcome him back.

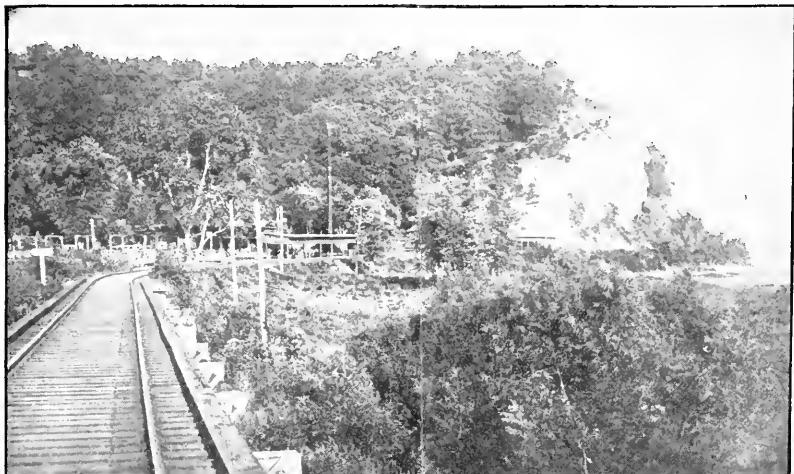

Our motion pictures will be in charge of Mr. C. R. Johnson of Grafton. He promises us the best of the silent pictures. We wonder what chance the talkies would have with our noisy audience on Mondays, which are set aside for Children's Nights.

Our young folks will be entertained each Saturday evening with a dance at the river front. Charles Baxter's Orchestra will furnish the music for the season. These five people play between them eight different instruments and you may be sure of the best. This group also furnishes music for all occasions.

We expect to have one or two food demonstrations interspersed in the program; also athletic events.

Two Bible Conferences will be held by Rev. Cameron Harmon of McKendree College, and Mr. Edward Marshall, lecturer of the Redpath Chautauqua Bureau. Mr. Marshall has been twice around the world, lived in Palestine and lectured in over one thousand cities in America.

ACCOMMODATIONS

The Springs Hotel (rooms only), renovated and newly furnished, under the management of the Ladies' Civic Improvement Association. Rooms can be had by the day, week or month.

The Trellis, managed by Mrs. Dorothy McCurdy, will serve meals. This attractive tea room especially caters to bridge luncheons and dinner parties.

Kentucky Home (rooms and board—newly furnished). Delightful outdoor dining room. Under management of Mr. and Mrs. Burnet of Alton.

The Cafeteria and the Wilsons. This might be called the year round eating place. Every time you go to Chautauqua Mr. and Mrs. Walter Wilson are there to greet you and feed you the best of food at any time and plenty of it.

The Willard, furnished rooms and accommodations for light housekeeping.

The King's Daughters, rooms and board for employed women and girls.

Cottages for rent by the week, week end, month or season. Also rooms for rent in cottages. Apply to Mr. M. Edwin Johnson, Chautauqua, Ill.

Summer Rest. Women's Christian Association for employed women and girls.

ATTRACTI0NS

The Swimming Pool. A large outdoor pool with new bath houses. Our filtering plant guarantees the water to be the purest.

Yacht Club. A club has been formed known as the Chautauqua Yacht Club. More will be heard from them. This innovation will do much to improve our river front.

Recreations. Guests can enjoy tennis, roque, horse shoes, horse back riding, etc.

The Craft Shop will be in charge of Miss Catlin at the Hotel and the usual style demonstrations will be held throughout the season.

The Midway, in charge of the Men's Club, for refreshments and hospitality. And speaking of hospitality, The Newlands, at the station pavilion, have an entirely new brand for this season. You will see many changes there.

Attention Mothers! Please don't forget when packing up for Chautauqua to include costumes the children have used in entertainments as they will want them to "dress up" for the Circus Day Parade in August.

P R O G R A M

Opening Night, June 28th

7:30 P. M.—Address of welcome and announcements by Mr. Johnson.
Orchestra—Charles Baxter, piano; Kenneth Harlow, trumpet and melophone; Edward Hayes, saxaphone and clarinet; Pearl Baxter, drums and voice; Joe Crivello, banjo and guitar.
8:00 P. M.—Motion pictures.
9:00 P. M.—Dancing at the Pavilion.

Week of June 29th to July 5th

Sunday School, 9:30 A. M.
Sermon by Rev. Ressho Robinson at 11:00 A. M.
Monday, Wednesday, Friday and Saturday, motion pictures at 7:30 P. M.
Saturday, Baxter's Orchestra at the Pavilion, 9:00 to 12:00 P. M.

Week of July 6th to July 12th

Sunday School, 9:30 A. M.
Sermon by Rev. P. R. Glofelter at 11:00 A. M.
Monday, 11:00 A. M., Food Demonstration by Mrs. Sophia B. Shaw, General Foods Co. of New York, and continuing through the week.
Monday, Wednesday, Friday and Saturday, motion pictures at 7:30 P. M.
Saturday, Baxter's Orchestra at the Pavilion, 9:00 to 12:00 P. M.

Week of July 13th to July 19th

Sunday School, 9:30 A. M.
Sermon by Rev. Edgar J. Vance at 11:00 A. M.
Monday, 11:00 A. M., Nature study class under direction of Mrs. Minnie Scotten Johnson, and continuing throughout the week.
Monday, Wednesday, Friday and Saturday, motion pictures at 7:30 P. M.
Saturday, Baxter's Orchestra at the Pavilion, 9:00 to 12:00 P. M.

Week of July 20th to July 26th

Sunday School, 9:30 A. M.
Sermon by H. B. Phillips at 11:00 A. M.
Monday, 10:00 A. M.—Nature Study.
Monday, 11:00 A. M.—Bible Conference.
Monday, Wednesday, Friday and Saturday, motion pictures at 7:30 P. M.
Saturday, Baxter's Orchestra at the Pavilion, 9:00 to 12:00 P. M.

Sunday Evenings, throughout the Season, Vespers as the Chapel.

Week of July 27th to August 2nd

Sunday School, 9:30 A. M.
Sermon by Rev. Cameron Harmon at 11:00 A. M.
Bible Conference each day of this week at 11:00 A. M., beginning Monday.
Monday, Wednesday, Friday and Saturday, motion pictures at 7:30 P. M.
Saturday, Baxter's Orchestra at the Pavilion, 9:00 to 12:00 P. M.

Week of August 3rd to August 9th

W. C. T. U. Sunday.
Sunday School, 9:30 A. M.
Sermon by Rev. Adah May Hagler at 11:00 A. M.
Monday, 11:00 A. M.—Bible Lecture by Prof. Edward Marshall.
Monday, Wednesday, Friday and Saturday, motion pictures at 7:30 P. M.
Saturday, Baxter's Orchestra at the Pavilion, 9:00 to 12:00 P. M.

Week of August 10th to August 16th

Sunday School, 9:30 A. M.
Sermon by Rev. M. A. Souers at 11:00 A. M.
Monday, Wednesday, Friday and Saturday, motion pictures at 7:30 P. M.
Saturday, Children's Day.
Saturday, Baxter's Orchestra at the Pavilion, 9:00 to 12:00 P. M.

Week of August 17th to August 23rd

Sunday School, 9:30 A. M.
Sermon by Rev. Charles Bauslin at 11:00 A. M.
Monday, Wednesday, Friday and Saturday, motion pictures at 7:30 P. M.
Saturday, Baxter's Orchestra at the Pavilion, 9:00 to 12:00 P. M.

Week of August 24th to August 30th

Sunday School, 9:30 A. M.
Sermon by Rev. E. B. Atcheson at 11:00 A. M.
Monday, Tuesday, Wednesday and Friday, motion pictures at 7:30 P. M.
Saturday, 7:30 P. M.—Annual Chautauqua Minstrels, directed by Miss Betty Broeder. Our gala night.
Saturday, Baxter's Orchestra at the Pavilion, 9:00 to 12:00 P. M.

Sunday, August 31st

Sunday School, 9:30 A. M.
Sermon by Rev. A. R. Pixley at 11:00 A. M.

ADMISSION RATES FOR SEASON

Season Tickets for Adults.....	$7.00
Guest Tickets for Adults.....	7.00
(If purchased before June 1st the above are $6.00 each)
Week Tickets for Adults.....	1.50
Day Tickets for Adults.....	.25
Week End Tickets.....	.50
Season Tickets for Hired Help.....	3.00
Children Aged 8 years to 15 years:
Season Tickets.....	$3.50
(If purchased before June 1st, $3.00)
Week Tickets75
Day Tickets.....	.15
Week End Tickets25
Children under 8 years—Free.

Many cottages on the grounds have accommodations for guests.

COTTAGES FOR RENT BY WEEK, MONTH OR SEASON

FOR FURTHER INFORMATION APPLY TO

M. E. JOHNSON, CHAUTAUQUA, ILL.,

AFTER MAY 15th, 1930

WHERE HEINIE FISCHER MAKES HIS HOME. HERE HE GREW LIES FOR THE RESIDENTS OF THE SUMMER RESORT.

By F. A. Behymer

A Staff Correspondent of
the Post-Dispatch

never refused to do anything was asked to do, and never shamed his work.

When George W. Lubke of St. Louis was president of Piasa Chautauqua Assembly and W. O. Wisley was its manager, they needed a handy-man and Fischer said he would help until they could get somebody else. They never got anybody else. It later transpired he was appointed custodian, look after the utilities that were gradually installed and switch over the assembly buildings and cottages between seasons.

In those early years when the seasons were short and the programs were more important than now, drawing great crowds, Fischer supplied himself with a team and wagon and hauled them on the railroad and the river boats the goods that arrived by day and night. For 21 years he was custodian. One summer when there was no program because of financial difficulties and there was no manager, Fischer was in complete charge.

* * *

In 1916 Fischer finished the cottage that he had built with his own hands because, as he says, "When you do things yourself you can do more and do it better." Adjoining the cottage he built a green house, partly for his own pleasure because he loved flowers, and partly to supply the public and private flower beds.

The blooming beds that bordered the path from the station were always called "Heinie's flowers." There were rare plants which he took pains in cultivating, and once there was a night-blooming cereus with more than a hundred blooms, more than the away of one of his summer friends. Into the sympathy wreaths they were woven with ferns and flowers from his greenhouse and mourners were comforted, saying to each other: "See what Heinie sent."

Summer sojourners who wanted to know the secrets that Mother Nature kept had only to ask Heinie and he was always glad to tell. If it was the coming weather they wanted to know about, they had only to ask Heinie. He would cast an eye skyward and tell them what to expect and his predictions seldom failed.

When ill fortune came and he lost his house and no longer had his team, the board of directors told him he could have the log house over in Babbs Holler as long as he lived. It was in a bramble but Heinie cleared the ground so that there would be a place for flowers and vegetables to grow.

So it came to pass that, somewhat enfeebled but still strong-hearted, his livelihood came mostly from the flowers and vegetables that he grew, the trundling of his wheelbarrow, burdened with baggage, and carrying the mail from the station to the post office.

Now another winter had gone and another season was coming on. Soon it would be time to plant the flowers. In preparation for that he spaded the beds and made them ready for the plants that he had protected from the cold.

There was one thing that he wanted to do before the people came and claimed his time. There was a star in the window and a flag that had hung on the porch ever since the boy went away to the war but that was not enough. Some of these days, Sgt. Charley would be coming home from overseas and there ought to be a flag on a pole out in front so that it would be the first thing he would find, hewed off the limbs for all its 30 feet of length and dragged it down to the creek that runs by the house. From there, with a neighbor's willing help, it was laid in his yard, ready to be raised.

HEINIE FISCHER LOVES TO WATCH THINGS GROW. BEFORE PARALYSIS FORCED HIM TO HIS BED, HE USED TO SEARCH THE WOODS FOR WILD FLOWERS. HERE HE IS SHOWN WITH A SHEAF OF BITTERSWEET.

Perhaps the spading of the flower beds and the fetching of the flagpole were too much for his waning strength. At any rate those were his last tasks. Before he could plant the flowers or raise the pole, rising early on a day that might have been devoted to these labors, he crumpled to the ground as he stood in the yard, his left side paralyzed. He was assisted to bed and has not left it since.

* * *

WHAT worried him most was that soon the opening night would come and he couldn't chair was beyond his means. But he under-rated the affection of all the people over on the Chautauqua grounds who called him Heinie. They needed only to be told his wish and it was done. The Ladies' Chautauqua Improvement Association had a card party at the hotel and most of the money needed to buy a wheel chair was raised. A few men who heard about it completed the fund and the order for the wheel chair was sent away.

In Heinie, when he heard about it, something that had been dead lived again. If, God willing, he lives until next year, he will have someone push him in his chair half mile down the valley road and up to the auditorium and he will be there in his chair by the left forward post for the opening program.

When that night comes there will be such a greeting for Heinie

WHERE HEINIE FISCHER MAKES HIS HOME. HERE HE GREW
S FOR THE RESIDENTS OF THE SUMMER RESORT.

By F. A. Behymer

A Staff Correspondent of
the Post-Dispatch

never refused to do anything was asked to do, and never left his work.

hen George W. Lubke of St. was president of Chautauqua Assembly and W. O.
ley was its manager, they ed a handy-man and Fischer he would help until they d get somebody else. They t got anybody else. In later
s he was appointed custodian, ook after the utilities that e gradually installed and ch over the assembly buildings cottage between seasons.

those early years when the ons were short and the proms were more important than , drawing great crowds, her supplied himself with a team and wagon and hauled n the railroad and the river kets the goods that arrived by and night. For 21 years he custodian. One summer when e was no program because of ncial difficulties and there no manager, Fischer was in plete charge.

* * *

1916 Fischer finished the cot-age that he had built with his wn hands because, as he says, hen you do things yourself you more and do it better." Adjointhe cottage he built a greenhouse, partly for his own pleasure use he loved flowers, and try to supply the public and ivate flower beds.

"The blooming beds that bored the path from the station re always called "Heinie's flowers." There were rare plants ich he took pains in cultivatng, and once there was a night oming cereus with more than hundred blooms, more than the ew Garden botanists had ever awn to grow on one stock.

away of one of his summer friends. Into the sympathy wreaths they were woven with ferns and flowers from his greenhouse and mourners were comforted, saying to each other: "See what Heinie sent."

Summer sojourners who wanted to know the secrets that Mother Nature kept had only to ask Heinie and he was always glad to tell. If it was the coming weather they wanted to know about, they had only to ask Heinie. He would cast an eye skyward and tell them what to expect and his predictions seldom failed.

When ill fortune came and he lost his house and no longer had his team, the board of directors told him he could have the log house over in Babbs Holler as long as he lived. It was in a bramble but Heinie cleared the ground so that there would be a place for flowers and vegetables to grow.

So it came to pass that, somewhat unfeebled but still strong-hearted, his livelihood came mostly from the flowers and vegetables that he grew, the trundling of his wheelbarrow, burdened with baggage, and carrying the mail from the station to the postoffice.

Now another winter had gone and another season was coming on. Soon it would be time to plant the flowers. In preparation for that he spaded the beds and made them ready for the plants that he had protected from the cold.

There was one thing that he wanted to do before the people came and claimed his time. There was a star in the window and a flag that had hung on the porch ever since the boy went away to the war but that was not enough.
Some of these days, Sgt. Charley would be coming home from overseas and there ought to be a flag on a pole out in front so that it would be the first thing he would see when he came up the hillier road from the station.

HEINIE FISCHER LOVES TO WATCH THINGS GROW. BEFORE PARALYSIS FORCED HIM TO HIS BED, HE USED TO SEARCH THE WOODS FOR WILD FLOWERS. HERE HE IS SHOWN WITH A SHEAF OF BITTERSWEET.

find, hewed off the limbs for all its 30 feet of length and dragged it down to the creek that runs by the house. From there, with a neighbor's willing help, it was laid in his yard, ready to be raised.

Perhaps the spading of the flower beds and the fetching of the flagpoles were too much for his waning strength. At any rate those were his last tasks. Before he could plant the flowers or raise the pole, rising early on a day that might have been devoted to these labors, he crumpled to the ground as he stood in the yard, his left side paralyzed. He was assisted to bed and has not left it since.

* * *

WHAT worried him most was that soon the opening night would come and he wouldn't be there. His place by the auditorium post would, for the first time, be vacant.

chair was beyond his means. But he under-rated the affection of all the people over on the Chautauqua grounds who called him Heinie. They needed only to be told his wish and it was done.
The Ladies' Chautauqua Improvement Association had a card party at the hotel and most of the money needed to buy a wheel chair was raised. A few men who heard about it completed the fund and the order for the wheel chair was sent away.

In Heinie, when he heard about it, something that had been dead lived again. If, God willing, he lives until next year, he will have someone push him in his chair the half mile down the valley road and up to the auditorium and he will be there in his chair by the left forward post for the opening program.

When that night comes there will be such a greeting for Heinie as is reserved for the great of earth. Chautauqua's song will be